Building big dreams together

To help you and your family be prepared no matter what comes your way, Franciscan Missionaries of Our Lady Health System offers a range of workplace benefits, including life, critical illness, and disability insurances and a retirement savings plan with a match, through Lincoln Financial Group.

Here to help fulfill dreams

Your Lincoln benefit consultant can help you understand your options so you can make informed decisions about what's right for you.

During your meeting, you can:

- Enroll in the voluntary and retirement benefits
- Figure out how much life, long-term disability, accident, and critical illness insurance is right for you
- Designate your beneficiaries
- See how to create and stick to a budget
- Talk about your options for other retirement accounts
- Register for a secure online account
- Learn how to manage life events

NOTE: You must enroll in your life, long-term disability, and critical illness insurance benefits during your first 30 days of employment. You may not enroll after that time.
